

Vancouver School of Economics

Application Instructions – Associate Professor - Start Date: July 2019

1. The Department strongly encourages applicants to use the EconJobMarket website to submit their applications. Go <https://econjobmarket.org/register> to set up your free account on EconJobMarket.org (EJM).
2. You will receive a username and PIN via email. Use this information to log-in.
3. Complete your profile:
 - a) When setting up your profile you will be asked for the highest level of education completed. Please put in the name of institution and date of graduation of your PhD.
 - b) You will be asked to provide your primary and other research fields. Please choose the areas of research interest matching your CV. Your application will be read by faculty members closest to your field. If you indicate a field that does not match your CV, there will be a delay while your application is put aside for reassignment.
 - c) In addition to other biographical and contact information you will be asked whether or not you are a Canadian or Permanent Resident of Canada.. This information is required for Canada Employment and Immigration purposes. Both Canadians and non-Canadians will be considered.
4. Our Associate Professor ad can be found on EJM at: <https://econjobmarket.org/positions/5175>. Our priority fields are Public Economics, Microeconomic Theory and Macroeconomics.
Required documents are:
 - CV
 - Job Market Paper*
 - Evidence of Teaching Effectiveness* – This will begin with a teaching statement which will include the candidate’s methodology and practice in working with a culturally diverse student body.. Please also include teaching evaluations – include department norms and the scale along with the evaluations. All teaching effectiveness evidence should be submitted as one continuous file. You will also be asked to specify who will be writing recommendation letters for you. This is an automatic feature of EconJobMarket. While you are welcome to complete this section, it is not necessary. If you are shortlisted we will ask you at that time for a list of arm's length* referees which the department may contact for an evaluation of your work.
5. The completed application on EJM will be transferred to us and processed. If you have questions, or if you wish to submit your application by mail, contact Anne Coates.
(anne.coates[at]ubc[dot]ca)
6. To ensure full consideration, applications must be submitted at <http://econjobmarket.org> by November 15, 2018. Shortlisted candidates will be contacted regarding an interview and/or visit to the department.

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Vancouver School of Economics – University of British Columbia

Position Type: Associate Professor

Categories/Specialties:

- Public Economics
- Economics Theory
- Macroeconomics

Deadline: 2018-11-15

The Vancouver School of Economics at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver Campus invites applications for a senior professorial position, primarily at the Associate Professor level but we may also consider truly exceptional candidates for appointment at the level of (Full) Professor. Our priority fields are Public Economics, Economic Theory and Macroeconomics, however truly exceptional candidates working outside these fields may be given consideration. Starting date: July 1, 2019. The successful candidate will be appointed to the rank appropriate to their level of experience.

Candidates must have a Ph.D., a distinguished international reputation, an outstanding record of publications in top-ranked journals, a proven record of excellence in teaching, and a track record of effective Ph.D. supervision. The successful candidate will be expected to maintain an active program of research, teaching, graduate supervision, and service. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Candidates hired into tenured positions must be approved by the appropriate VSE Promotion and Tenure Committee and the university's Senior Appointments Committee before the appointment can be made official.

Applications must include:

- a c.v. which will include a publication record and links to current research papers
- evidence of teaching effectiveness (normally student evaluations of teaching)
- a teaching statement which will include the candidate's methodology and experience in working with a culturally diverse student body

We encourage anyone who desires to also include a one-page statement identifying the applicant's contribution, or potential contribution, to diversity. We require the names and contact information of at least 4 potential referees who can be contacted for an evaluation of the applicant's work, should the applicant be shortlisted. Application instructions and additional information about the School are available on our website at <https://economics.ubc.ca/people/job-postings/>. Review of applications will begin on November 15, 2018 and will continue until the position is filled.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. The position is subject to final budgetary approval.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Métis, Inuit, or Indigenous person. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.
